

Movies With Zionist Agenda

50 First Dates

Alexander - Oliver Stone

Austin Powers III - Time travel back to the disco era...

American Graffiti - George Lucas

American Pie - This movie came out when file-sharing was starting to become popular, figuring people would download the song of the same name by Don McLean. The song references religion in a positive way, as well as referring to 'the day the music died'. When in reality, the music came alive. The American flag on the album cover is a diversion from the true origin of the lyrics.

Analyze This/That

Anchorman

Any Given Sunday - Oliver Stone

Artificial Intelligence - Steven Spielberg

Batman Begins, The Dark Knight - At the beginning of The Dark Knight, a bank is being robbed. The 'manager' takes out a shotgun and tries to 'defend' the bank, because... the bank is owned by the mob. The movie depicts that the bank is run by the Italian mafia. Very far from the truth and that is why they show this in the movie, to try and plant that fallacy into the minds of those who are not aware of the truth which is in reality that Jews have the market when it comes to banks, including the biggest private bank, the federal reserve. In another part of the movie, two cruise ships are rigged with explosives, one carrying criminals, the other carrying citizens, each with a detonator for the other ship. Whoever detonates the other ship first, lives. This brings up the issue of 'pre-emptive strike', as we know, the 'pre-emptive strike' against Iraq was based on false information about non-existent weapons of mass destruction to wage a war in the Middle East against Israel's enemies. In the movie, neither ship detonates the other and both survive, if only this would hold true in real life. If you look at what's happening to the Palestinians, who have already lost much of their homeland to Israel since it's inception in 1948, every day Israel attacks, pollutes, denies medical attention, levels crops, shoots unarmed civilians and steals more land to put illegal outposts on. What are Palestinians to do? Israel is 'detonating' Palestine every day, at some point you must fight back. The situation is not much better in America, it's basically a hold-up, everything and anything to keep the Federal Reserve pumping out worthless paper, with interest. People have died so as to be able to put the story on 'CNN' to threaten the rest of us. Every day we get threats and lies, we pay $12 to go to a movie theatre, more threats! Put forward by actors and actresses forced to read Israeli scripted bs! We cannot hold off any longer against this direct and stated threat, to us, to our economy, to our media, to our rights, freedoms and everything we hold dear. Every day, more of the same, they will not stop, until they are stopped.
